SUMMER 2026 · SPECIAL EDITION

Resident Artists' Exhibition

Celebrating the Creativity Within Our Community

This summer, artlounge is delighted to dedicate its display stands to three resident artists from the Grosvenor Waterside community.

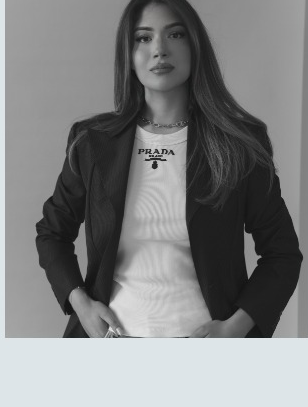

We recognise that exhibiting in London can be challenging, and we believe there are many talented established and emerging artists within Grosvenor Waterside who deserve the opportunity to present their work to a wider audience. Through this special exhibition, we celebrate the creativity that exists within our own community and provide a platform for residents to share their artistic journeys and unique perspectives.

We are delighted to present works by Ulviyya Akhundova, Clare O'Sullivan, and Nicole Yar, each bringing a distinctive artistic voice and creative vision. We hope this exhibition inspires residents, encourages conversations around art, and strengthens the cultural connections within Grosvenor Waterside.

FEATURED ARTISTS

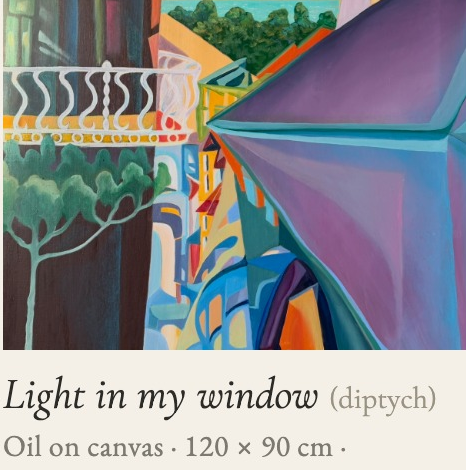

Ulviyya Akhundova

○ Grosvenor Waterside Resident

Ulviyya Akhundova is an artist, painter, curator, and art business consultant. She studied Fine Art Painting at the University of the Arts London before completing a Master's degree in Art Business at Sotheby's Institute of Art, combining artistic practice with expertise in the international art market. A member of the Union of Artists of Azerbaijan since 2024, she has participated in exhibitions across several countries and has also curated numerous exhibitions. In 2023, she presented her solo exhibition DETENTE, continuing her commitment to artistic practice, curatorial work, and international cultural exchange.

Clare O'Sullivan

○ Grosvenor Waterside Resident

Clare O'Sullivan is a London-based multidisciplinary artist whose practice encompasses painting, music, and film. Working primarily in acrylic, her expressive abstract paintings explore themes of transformation, emotion, and the human experience through movement and symbolic forms. A self-taught artist with more than twelve years of dedicated practice, Clare has developed a distinctive artistic voice outside traditional academic pathways. Her work has been collected privately in both the United Kingdom and Switzerland.

Nicole Yar

○ Grosvenor Waterside Resident

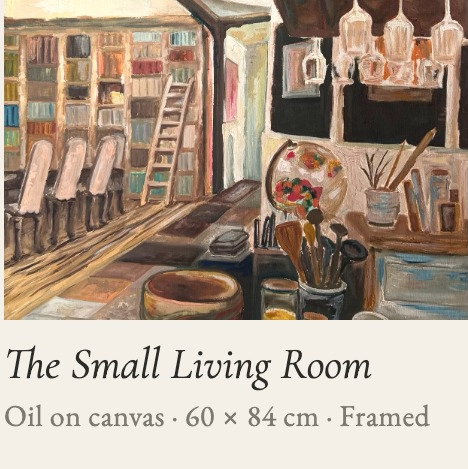

Nicole Yar is an emerging artist and Architecture student at the University of Bath, where she explores the relationship between architecture, emotion, and artistic expression. Art has been central to her creative journey from an early age, leading to outstanding academic achievement, including an A* in Art and full marks for her Extended Project Qualification on the emotional impact of architectural design. Her research has since been shared with other schools as an exemplar, reflecting both her passion for design and her thoughtful, creative approach to visual storytelling.
